MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

Sir:

1. Page 54 (copy attached) of your opening statement to the Presidential Commission, as it pertains to former employees, says in part:

"...and I have directed that they not be contacted by the Agency at this time in order to avoid any possibility of misunderstanding of such contacts."

2. I now raise the issue as to whether we should proceed with the planning to have an Alumni Day in April. If the Commission adheres to its schedule, their 90-day period will have run out by mid-April. Congressional inquiries may or may not still be under way at that time. I just rather wonder if we are wise now to set ourself on a course of action, from which we could not gracefully withdraw, to have an Alumni Day in April.
